

2025 SPECIAL LETTER

from your friends the Sforza's, serving with International Students Inc. in NJ

God is good! We can't get over how lively things have been this year! This semester at Stevens, our main campus, we've connected with over 249 international students, with anywhere from 75-90 non-believers regularly attending our Friday dinners.

Of course they come for the food, fun and friendship – but they also stay for our Bible discussions—which is when we preach Christ. Additionally they join our home groups, field trips and more. Our participation rate is a miracle considering there are significantly less new international students overall!

In the spring we celebrated two students coming to Christ! “Jason” from East Asia and “Rick” from the Middle East (pseudonyms). Both were baptized and are being heavily disciplined as well! For all others, please keep praying with us that the Holy Spirit helps students recognize Jesus for who He truly is!

The purpose for this special letter is to ask you to consider a one-time contribution toward His work.

As ISI missionaries, we depend on God's provision through ministry partners to meet our ongoing needs—salary, social security, ministry expenses, and healthcare costs. By His grace, God always provides despite losing some monthly support recently. We're also thankful that Jenn's employer's health plan covers all of us, which greatly lessens our missionary budget.

However, we're praying for provision of other specific needs:

1. Tokyo Conference (June 2026): By far our greatest need is for ISI's annual staff + family gathering in Japan as part of ISI's global outreach strategy! All five of us will attend. We've raised funds for the conference, food, and lodging but still need $6,000–$8,000 for airfare.
2. Hospitality (extra $2000): Random extra costs for meals and gatherings with students—feeding students seems to never stop!
3. FSA Fund ($3,400/year): Covers ISI's “FSA” health fund for health expenses not included in Jenn's insurance.
4. Student Scholarships ($1,500): To send several Christian students to our national student conference in December (airfare + conference).
5. Milan Follow-Up ($1,000): Supports continued evangelistic dinners and outreach after our July trip—3 hosted so far, 8 total planned!

The total we are trusting God for is $13,900. This covers most of the above needs and it helps create a needed buffer in our ministry account for reserves.

Would you prayerfully consider helping us reach our funding goal with a special gift of $750, $250, $75, or whatever amount God puts on your heart?? Your support helps us focus on reaching international students with the hope of Jesus!

If so, make checks payable to ISI and mail them back with the provided envelope by December 15. You can also give online at: SFORZAGRAMS.COM/GIVE. All gifts are tax-deductible! Feel free to call/text/email us with any questions: JSforza@internationalstudents.org // 201-906-8698. Whatever you decide, our full appreciation for you is unwavering. Thank you!
